

International Certification of Dance Studies

The International Dance Council CID, official partner of UNESCO, validates teaching by offering FREE OF CHARGE the International Certification of Dance Studies.

Outline:

1. Each Level is at least 150 hours, including classes, rehearsals, performances, lectures.
2. The school, the teacher and the student are Members of CID.
3. The school sends to CID a declaration that the student has completed 150 hours.
4. CID sends formal Certification on parchment paper, valid world-wide. An official hands parchment to the student at a special ceremony.
5. After Level 1 the student can proceed to Level 2 (another 150 hours) then another 150 hours for Level 3, according to the requirements of the school.

6. This applies to all countries, all forms of dance.
7. It is free of charge, like all services provided by CID.

Procedure for International Certification of Dance Studies

1. The teacher or director of the school is admitted to CID as Member.
2. The school is admitted to CID as Member, nominated by the teacher.
3. The teacher sends a filled a form for each student having completed 150 hours.
4. The students are admitted to CID as Student Members, nominated by the teacher.
5. The Executive Secretariat of CID sends to the school International Certification.
6. The School Director or an important personality of the city hands parchment to the students at a special ceremony.
7. A student can continue for another 150 hours, for example: Ballet Level 5, Tango Level 2, Dance Therapy Level 3.
8. Assuming 38 working weeks in a year:

4 hours a week x 38 weeks = 152 hours, that is a Level in 1 year

2 hours a week x 38 weeks = 76 hours a year, that is a Level in 2 years

1 hour a week x 38 weeks = 38 hours a year, that is a Level in 4 years.
9. Total cost is only membership fees: for teacher + for school + for each student's membership. Certification is free of charge.
